SMOG HAS BEEN CITED by Santa Clara County doctors as the most frequent reason for advising patients to move.

We dug that little gem out of a recent news release issued by the committee on environmental health of the Santa Clara County Medical Society.

The release went on to report that as many as 700 patients may have moved from the Santa Clara Valley during 1969 due to a combination of environmental hazards, air pollution being the most significant cause.

The news release explained that a survey revealed that the most frequent response of the doctors to the question of whether they had noted any significant changes in environmental factors in the past year or two was smog.

An interesting sidelight to the survey, the release noted, was the finding that 25% of the physicians connected traffic congestion and transportation problems with chronic lung diseases and 43% connected these difficulties with nervous and mental disorders.

We have kept this news release in our files for more than a month.

From time to time we have glanced at it and then have pushed it aside, hoping that its gloomy conclusions would somehow be softened if we didn't look at them.

But we thought we had better report on the release in our column this week.

We thought we noticed that it was starting to pollute the other notes we had in our file.

IN THE INTEREST OF economy, the City Council eliminated the clock tower that had been included in the original plans for the new city hall.

But Bill Hedley, architect for the civic center, still would like to see the clock tower constructed.

And he has not given up the hope that local civic groups might undertake the financing of the project as a sort of communitywide endeavor.

He indicated at a recent City Council meeting that he would have the drawings and plans for the tower available soon and would put them on display.

He indicated that the estimated cost of the tower would be about $5000 and he felt that it would be a worthwhile and attractive addition to the complex.

Although we have not seen the tentative plans, we tend to agree with Bill that the clock tower would provide civic organizations with an opportunity to become an integral and tangible part of the civic center.

It could be sort of a rallying point for all the diversified groups that make up the community.

We are well aware that the entire civic center complex in itself could be considered a sort of "rallying point" from the standpoint of the taxpaying citizens.

After all we all have a stake in the whole shebang, as those of us who shelled out dough to the tax collector on December 10 will testify.

But a clock tower would stand out and be identified as a voluntary contribution by the citizens.

There's a difference.

And besides it is entirely possible that the clock will keep correct time.

ARCHITECT HEDLEY shook up the city councilmen at the recent meeting during the discussion on the landscaping plans for the civic center.

Bill was explaining the two phases in the overall plan.

One dealt with the area up to the parkway on the streets around the civic center and the other the parkway strip itself which would be financed

BEFORE COMMITTEE MEETS WITH BOARD

Dismissed citizens group asks for reinstatement

Whether an executive session (closed to the public) of the Campbell Union School District board of trustees to discuss recommendations of the now non-existent Citizens Advisory Finance Committee is to be held this Thursday, Dec. 17, at 7 p.m. in the board room was still uncertain at press time.

The committee was dismissed by board action on Dec. 3 and "former" members of the group have indicated that they will not participate in the executive session unless the committee is reinstated.

In a letter to the board this week, signed by the committee members, it was pointed out that, as individuals, they had no legal or financial protection, but as a committee they act as an agent of the district and thus were protected.

There was no indication at press time whether the board would reinstate the committee for the purpose of the executive session on Dec. 17.

Official notification of the scheduled executive session has been made by Jim D'Avis, acting district superintendent, as instructed by the board president, Dr. Richard MacQuiddy.

All members of the "dismissed" citizens group have been invited to attend the meeting and present whatever information they have affecting the school district which they felt could not be presented at a public meeting.

At the Dec. 10 board meeting, when the executive session was scheduled by MacQuiddy, a written question presented by Dr. Robert L. King, a former member of the committee, relative to the closed meeting was presented.

Dr. King submitted that the committee should be reinstated; that legal counsel should be provided and that the business manager, C.E. Bradley, be present. No official action was taken on King's request.

According to the statement made by MacQuiddy in setting the executive session, the board must be notified by noon Wednesday, Dec. 16, as to whether any of the former committee members planned to attend Thursday's meeting.

The following is the letter that the former committee members sent to the trustees this week in answer to the invitations to attend the executive session:

Dear Trustees:

The undersigned members of the dismissed Citizens' Advisory Finance Committee acknowledge your written request that we attend an executive session on Dec. 17, 1970, with the Board of Trustees. We are willing to participate in the meeting and will be present as individuals or by representation.

Since the Board has recognized the need for an executive session with the Committee after dismissing the committee members, it is understood our Committee will be reinstated on Dec. 17, only for the explicit purpose of executive session meetings.

The recommendation for executive sessions was made

Students ask

Students at Campbell High School have asked that we print the following message:

Help someone this Christmas. The students of Campbell High School are sponsoring a Christmas Drive. Any donations of food, clothing, toys, etc. will be greatly appreciated. Send donations to main office, Campbell High School, 1 W. Campbell Ave.

Thank you—and Merry Christmas!

Recall action

There will be sufficient signatures on the petitions seeking the recall of Mrs. Eleanor Graham-Armstrong and Ralph Steinberg as trustees of the Campbell Union School District by the end of January, Ed Wood, petition coordinator, estimated this week.

At a meeting of the recall coordination group on Saturday, Wood reported that approximately 50% of the necessary signatures had been obtained and that efforts on the part the block-workers will be "stepped up" within the next few weeks.

He added that additional block-workers would be helpful in the accelerated drive and invited volunteers willing to serve to contact the committee. Wood's number is 378-7567.

"PONY EXPRESS" AND CAMPBELL PRESS

Trustees discuss "censorship" of intra-district mailing system

Whether the West Valley Federation of Teachers, an AFT union affiliate reportedly representing six or less teachers in the Campbell School District, had misused the intra-district mail distribution system through "character assassinations" of local citizens in its newsletters was raised by Trustee Judy Ruscigno at the last school board meeting.

The district's mail system, called the "Pony Express", distributes bulletins and all types of informational material to personnel in the schools.

Mrs. Ruscigno also suggested that those who had been maligned by the WVFT newsletters, which were distributed to all the teachers, should also have access to the "pony express".

Trustee Ralph Steinberg took issue with Mrs. Ruscigno, pointing out the dangers of invoking any type of censorship. He said he did not always agree with the WVFT literature but no one was forced to read it.

Steinberg received the largest applause of the evening when he added that he did not like everything that was printed in The Campbell Press either.

He was interrupted at that point by prolonged hand-clapping on the part of the audience. Steinberg then further emphasized that the newspaper had the right to print what it wished and that censorship of any kind was dangerous.

Mrs. Ruscigno suggested that all the employees should vote in a secret ballot as to whether the WVFT had abused its privilege. But her motion lost on a 2-2 count.

(Dr. Richard MacQuiddy and Steinberg opposing the motion with Jim Gilliland and Mrs. Ruscigno favoring it. Mrs. Eleanor Graham-Armstrong was absent.)

After further discussion, Jim D'Avis, acting superintendent, was directed to get a ruling from the county counsel as to what groups were entitled to use of the "pony express".

In another involved action which took three motions, the board by a 3-1 vote established

AT CITY COUNCIL MEETING

New residential plan gets nod

Another step was taken Monday night in developing a new concept for single-family homes in Campbell when the City Council gave "first reading" to a zone change ordinance for a four-acre parcel at Sunny Oaks and Virginia.

The property is now zoned R-1 (single family) and the developers, Kunkel-Thomas Company, are seeking it changed to P-D (planned development) which will allow 29 single-family homes on lots less than the minimum (6000-sq. ft) city standards.

The developers plan to use the "zero-lot-line" approach, which cuts down on side-yard space but allows more usable space, according to the developers.

A central open-space recreational area is also part of the overall plan.

The Planning Commission approved the zone-change after numerous hearings and discussions in which residents of the adjacent areas took part.

The residents emphasized the need for adequate safeguards for the maintenance

Editorial

On disagreements

It has become apparent now that in the strife-torn Campbell Union (elementary) School District unless one agrees with the actions of the majority of the board members and the militant teacher groups, one is a villian. That is, as far as those people are concerned.

That fact became quite evident last Thursday night at the school board meeting when The Campbell Press received a prolonged "ovation" from the majority of those present at the meeting.

The "ovation", of course, was of the negative variety. It came in response to a statement by Trustee Ralph Steinberg who was defending the right of the West Valley Federation of Teachers to use the school's mail distribution system called the "Pony Express."

Trustee Judy Ruscigno had submitted that the WVFT had misused the use of the "Pony Express" by "character assassinations" of responsible citizens of the community.

She suggested that a closed ballot vote be held by all school employees to ascertain whether the employees felt that the privilege had been abused.

Steinberg conceded that he did not agree with all the material in the newsletters of the WVFT. But he emphasized that the board had to be very careful when it came to "censoring".

Then he made the statement that provoked the heaviest applause of the evening.

He said, on the other hand, he may not like what he reads in The Campbell Press–

That's as far as he got. A prolonged burst of applause interrupted proceedings.

After the "ovation" had subsided, Steinberg added that The Campbell Press had the right to print what it wished and there should be no censorship in the case of the newspaper either.

We agree with Steinberg.

Censorship of any kind is distasteful.

But we think it is important to remember that a writer also has a responsibility in presenting his story to his readers whether they are subscribers to a newspaper or members of a teacher's organization.

We find no fault with anyone taking a firm stand on any issue.

We do.

We are not naive enough to think that there will be no opposition to our position.

But we sincerely believe that, if one's case is strong enough, there is no need to resort to personal recriminations, or to what has been termed a "character assassination".

That then is where the responsibility of the writer enters the picture.

As a professional newspaperman of many years standing, it is our contention that when a writer stoops to insults and personal attacks, it is almost always true that his overall case had been weakened.

Although we feel that allowing the WVFT the privilege of using the "Pony Express" system of the school district to distribute its newsletter to all the teachers is extremely generous, in light of the fact that the WVFT is reported to have only six members, we do not think it should be denied or "censored", as long as the district gives "recognition" to that organization.

We submit, however, that the so-called shock treatment that has been used in the newsletters in some instances through insults and verbal abuse, verging on slander, serves no purpose except to incite emotions to a high pitch.

While we concede that The Campbell Press has made its editorial stand in the issue clear (and the "ovation" the other night proved that),we defy anyone to point out where this newspaper has resorted to the type of name-calling that has appeared in the newsletters of the teachers' union.

In addition, this newspaper has published numerous letters from individuals who vehemently disagree with its editorial policy. We hold that many of those letters lambasting both the editorial policy and your editor were far more acrimonious than any editorial or column that has appeared in this paper.

We are not trying to place the WVFT newsletter in the same journalistic category as The Press. The newsletter is not a newspaper. And that's the difference.

Yet it does present the written word and any medium that does that must also assume the responsibility that goes with it.

We concede that the "ovation" The Press received the other night indicated that the majority of people in attendance at the meeting disagreed with our editorial policy.
And they have that right.

But we think it is well to remember that a reverse reaction could have been the case in a different setting.

There is one consolation to all this. People do seem to be reading this newspaper.

primarily as a street improvement.

He submitted that the cost of the parkway strip improvement would be approximately $87,000.

The cost of landscaping, etc. of the property up to the parkway strip was estimated at about $47,000.

Hedley even repeated the $87,000 figure when some of the councilmen who appeared visibly shaken, worriedly questioned him.

Then Bill saw the light and apologized all over the place.

He didn't mean $87,000.

He meant $8700.

He inadvertantly had added an extra zero, making a slight difference of $78,300!

One might say that the councilmen were quite relieved.

It seems finding $8700 is a lot easier than $87,000 as far as the city is concerned.

Of course, we wouldn't know about that.

Both amounts are out of our own league anyway.

ALMOST 21% OF THE registered voters within the city went to the polls in the first referendum election (Dec. 8) in this city's 18-year history.

Conceding that the percentage was higher than had been anticipated, the fact still remains that 79% of the voters in the city couldn't be bothered on election day.

We realize, of course, that there will never be a 100% turnout at the polls, and even hotly contested state and national elections have seldom hit the 80% mark.

But what bothers us is that it was almost a foregone conclusion before the first person voted that at least 75% of the electorate was not going to show up at the polling booths.

As we have said in this column, we did not think that the issue that was up to bat warranted a referendum election and that it was a question that residents in the so-called fringe areas of the city were unconcerned about.

For that reason we were agreeably surprised at the 21% turnout, which, by the way, topped the percentage of voters in many of the past city elections.

Still we cannot help wonder why 79% of the voters did not take this unique opportunity to participate in their local government on Dec. 8.

It bothers us.

But we guess we should be used to it by now.

THERE WAS CONSIDERable bitterness generated in the referendum election campaign. Your editor and this newspaper, of course, was the target for quite a few pot shots.

Some of 'em left a few scars. We bruise easily but heal fast.

But we are fairly thick-skinned and the scars have already gone.

We don't mind a bit, as we have said so many times, having people disagree with us. We expect it.

We do take a stand on issues and will continue to do so. We have feelings, too, you know.

We are well aware that our opinions expressed editorially should make a greater impact than those expressed orally at a cocktail party.

At least we hope they do.

But we sincerely believe we have the right to express our opinions in print as long as we are at the helm of this newspaper.

And you have every right to disagree with 'em.

But these disagreements should not leave permanent scars on either side.

Holy mackerel, if they did, we would have to use crutches to get around.

to protect the immediate areas from a possible future "tenement" sector developing.

Two of the residents who have patiently attended the long drawn out procedures again on Monday night questioned the need for the zone change.

Mrs. Nan Warren, of 885 Bucknam, maintained that a residential development on the property should have standard-sized lots and Mrs. John Moore, of 888 Bucknam, claimed that the proposal offered too high a density for the area.

Representing Kunkel-Thomas at the hearing Monday was Carl Bumpass, who explained that the two bedroom homes would have 1096 sq.ft. and the three bedroom jobs would be 1234 sq.ft. He added that the plans allowed for approximately seven families per acre which met the density requirements as specified in the city's general plan for the area.

Second reading (adoption) of the zone change ordinance is scheduled for the next Council meeting, Dec. 28.

In other actions, the Council on Monday night voted to approve the purchase of three cars (city manager, police and fire) for the city from the state at $8,555.10 which was $580 more than had been anticipated (and budgeted) because of the problem the state is having in obtaining fleet discount prices.

With air-conditioning for the vehicles, which was eliminated, the overage would have been $1099.

In another financial matter, the Council continued until the next meeting, any action on the bids that had been submitted for the public address system of the new city hall. Three bids had been received with the low almost $1700 less than the second. The bids ranged from $2,899 to $4,977.

The Council met again last night (Tuesday, Dec. 15) to canvass votes of the city's first referendum election held on Dec. 8 in which the Council was upheld by 1164 to 918 and the Council will meet in a study session on Tuesday, Dec. 29, to discuss procedures for the selection of a new city attorney.

City Attorney Joe Bonacina, the first and only city attorney in Campbell's history, having served since 1952, has submitted his resignation effective Dec. 31. However, Bonacina has agreed to stay on until a new legal counsel has been named and will also assist in the screening of applicants.

There have been 10 applications submitted for the position, City Manager Bob Stephens reported.

The Council also voted to remove the two-hour parking restriction on Harrison the board's representation for future "meet and confer" sessions with district employees.

D'Avis had recommended that the board's designee for the sessions should be the superintendent and three others from the staff as a "team".

Mrs. Ruscigno's motion to expand the "team" to four with a board member and superintendent and two others to be agreed upon failed to get approval. She maintained that someone not on the district payroll should be on the "team" to transmit the board's consensus of opinion.

Steinberg disagreed with her because of the difficulty of having board members available and also felt that the superintendent should have flexibility in the negotiations.

A motion by MacQuiddy to approve the acting superintendent's recommendation also lost.

The motion that was finally approved by a 3-1 vote specified that the acting superintendent, and four others from the staff, including the business manager, would constitute the "meet and confer" team.

In another split 3-1 vote, this time with MacQuiddy dissenting, the board adopted the recommendation by Mrs. Ruscigno that all bids will be opened at regular meetings of the board.

Steinberg thought it would be worth a try, and if it didn't work out, it could be changed again. MacQuiddy felt that it would be too time-consuming to have bid openings at regular board meetings.

The board, by a unanimous vote, adopted one transfer within the budget after the teacher representatives, who interrupted the proceedings, had been assured that they had been consulted on the matter, and by a 3-1 vote (Jim Gilliland dissenting) approved another budget transfer.

The board adjourned after three hours to go into an executive session to discuss salary adjustments and resignations.

Turning over some soggy dirt are Bob Bullard, president of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce, and Howard Carlson, San Jose-based senior vice-president and regional manager.

The office, expected to open in three months, is the first in Campbell for Crocker-Citizens.

STORM DAMAGE--During the recent heavy rainstorms, a number of the olive trees planted at The PruneYard were toppled by the wind. However, all of the trees are now back in place.

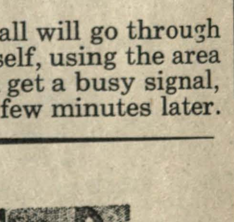
THE PHONE BOOTH

We know that everyone likes to call friends and relatives long distance during the Christmas holidays. That's why we'll have every available Operator on duty and all circuits in operation to handle an expected record number of calls. But just as freeways get crowded during rush hour traffic, our telephone lines sometimes become overloaded during the peak Christmas period. To help avoid delay in getting your call through we suggest:

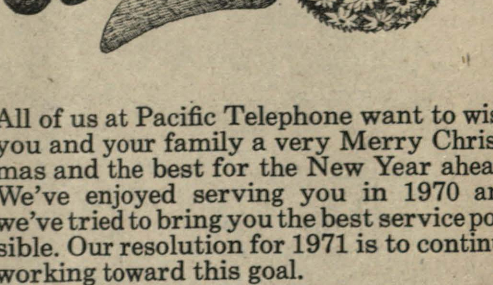


PLAN YOUR CALLS–Since Christmas and New Year's both fall on Fridays, you can take advantage of the same low rates as the holiday by placing your calls during the weekend. That way you'll have a better chance of getting your call through quicker. (Also, lines are not usually as busy in the afternoon.)

DIAL DIRECT–Your call will go through faster if you dial it yourself, using the area code and number. If you get a busy signal, hang up and try again a few minutes later.

YOU ARE CALLING FROM

Have you noticed that now every one of our coin pay phones has an address card? Sometimes knowing exactly where you're calling from can be pretty important, like in an emergency, or when someone is coming to pick you up. This is just one more way we've tried to make our pay phones more useful to you.



All of us at Pacific Telephone want to wish you and your family a very Merry Christmas and the best for the New Year ahead. We've enjoyed serving you in 1970 and we've tried to bring you the best service possible. Our resolution for 1971 is to continue working toward this goal.

Light opera plans 'Molly' as February show

JACQUELINE BEARD

"The Unsinkable Molly Brown" has been selected by the West Valley Light Opera Association to herald their new 1971 season.

"Molly", adapted from the book by Richard Morris, music and lyrics by Meredith Willson, is based on the story of the illiterate girl from Hannibal, Missouri who married Leadville Johnny Brown, discoverer of one of the richest silver mines in Colorado.

Molly's trials and tribulations in her efforts to be accepted by the aloof Denver Society, yet never quite making it, results in a most amusing musical play.

A cast of over 50 singers, actors and dancers will be directed by Paul Gurev. Gurev has also directed "The Student Prince" for the West Valley Light Opera Association. Co-producers are Edward Hand and Eugene Francis. Barbara Valente will be the choreographer and Jacqueline Beard is the choral director.

Mrs. Beard has been associated with the West Valley Light Opera since 1966 and the presentation of "Oliver", "Here's Love" etc., and has been active, not only as the choral director for the West Valley Light Opera's tour group, the "Overtures", but also as the musical director for "Annie Get Your Gun" produced by the Children's Metropolitan Operetta Guild.

A graduate of the University of Washington, she teaches music and is the organist for Christ Lutheran Church.

"The Unsinkable Molly Brown" will open Feb. 5 at the Saratoga Civic Theatre. 13777 Fruitvale Ave., Saratoga.

Reservations and further information regarding this event may be obtained by calling 356-6410.

PIONEER DISTRICT

A summary of the Boy Scouts of America Adult Training programs for the second half of 1970 reveals a deep involvement between elders and youth, in a true bridge of the generation gap, reports Stephen Goodman, Pioneer District Chairman and manager of Sanitation District Four.

Early in November, a Cub Leaders "Pow-Wow" was held at San Jose City College. This all-day training session was attended by 247 adults, 107 of them Pioneer District leaders. Dave Badal, Pack 343 and Ken Matheson, Troop 378, were among the leaders heading up the training sessions.

The "Bear Paw" scout leader training program attracted 29 adults with 12 graduating. This program ran from September through October and was held on Thursday nights at Cambrian Elementary School. Volunteers Gene Ellsworth, Troop 388, and Cliff Avery, Troop 346, worked hard to make this program an outstanding success.

Four days were set aside for a Den Mothers Training Program in October. Mrs. Pat Flechtner and Mrs. Shirley Jones shared morning and evening programs at which 74 Cub program leaders attended and 38 graduated. Again, Cambrian Elementary School was the scene for this event.

Finally, this fall, a University of Cubbing was held during October at Dartmouth, Metzler, Forest Hill and Esterbrook schools. Eighty-one Cub leaders attended and 31 were certified as graduates. Organizers of this program were Hans Witsch, Pack 374; Sol Tela, Pack 367; Fred Scarbourgh, Pack 301; Jim Parker, Pack 302; Don Credi, Pack 320. Trainers were George Wise and Chuck Gates.

Emphasizing the need for more and better trained scouting leaders, Goodman called for even more volunteers. He cited the many tangible and intangible rewards accruing to adults who involve themselves in youth programs.

In addition, the boys will go caroling in their local neighborhood and at some local rest homes on Tuesday, Dec. 22.

Cubmaster John Wente introduced new committee members at the pack's last meeting.

Several cubs received awards in November. Alan Reaves received a wolf badge and a gold arrow; Darrell Reaves received his wolf badge; Charles McDonald received his two year pin and awards as scientist, forester, artist and athlete; Steven Wente received his two year pin, as well as scientist, forester and artist awards; Eric Stoll received his one year pin and wolf badge.

Camden's American and Comparative Government classes have had a series of lectures from the Legal Aid Society. Subjects discussed were consumer protection, discrimination and legal rights as a minor.

Renting apartments to minors will also be a problem to Camden's senior students, if they live away from home and do not live in a dormitory. Mr. Lawson said that the $50 cleaning deposit is hardly ever returned.

Kandis Scott, a female attorney for the Legal Aid Society, talked about discrimination in renting to minorities. "If a person thinks they are being discriminated against because of race or religion then they should report it to the Better Business Bureau or the Legal Aid Society," Miss Scott stated.

POW'S NEED OUR HELP

Are you interested in giving a worthwhile gift at Christmas especially to someone who will not even be able to be home with their family or who will not have any say in their destiny? I am speaking of our Prisoners of War.

Several classes at Campbell High School have been writing and gathering letters to send to the Paris Peace Talks on the treatment of our Prisoners of War. Since Christmas is a time of giving, why don't you give some time in the writing of a letter to the North Vietnamese. We have a sample letter that you can copy or write your own. Send it to Campbell Scramble, % of The Campbell Press and we will see that it is sent with our letters.

People at home feel helpless at times about the situation in Vietnam. Many would like to help but don't know how. This is just a small way to help and I'm sure all efforts would be appreciated.

Here is the sample letter:

Chairman,

North Vietnamese Delegation to the Paris Peace Talks,
Paris, France.

As an American, I would like to express my deep concern over your treatment of Prisoners of War.

Being a nation in the world community, you are obligated out of human considerations to afford those whom you hold the minimum standards of existence. Your ratification of the 1949 Geneva Conventions relative to the treatment of prisoners requires you to:

Permit neutral inspections of all prison camps.

Publish a complete list of men you hold.

Release the sick and wounded.

And allow a free flow of mail between the Prisoners of War and their families.

My fellow Americans share this grave concern over the desperate plight of the Prisoners of War, those Missing in Action, and their families.

(Signature)

And a Merry Christmas!

Dawn

Bill Walker claims bride in Seattle

Seattle's Glendale Evangelical Lutheran Church was the setting when William Robert Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Walker of Campbell, claimed Susanne Marie Prideaux as his bride in an afternoon double ring ceremony.

James Harold Prideaux escorted his daughter down the aisle. She was preceded by her sorority sister, Pam Hilleren and bridesmaids Camille Erickson, Tanya Toschi, Katie Kettering and Mrs. Karalee Luedke.

Susanne chose a white silk organza and pearl beaded lace gown for her special day and carried a bouquet of stephanotis and talisman roses. Her bridesmaids wore moss crepe dresses with bouquets of talisman roses with coral and moss streamers.

Mrs. James Prideaux, mother of the bride, wore a gold silk dress with banded neckline. Mrs. Walker wore a green silk coat and dress with bone accessories.

Lon Smith, a fraternity brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Dave Mickelson and Robert Corbett, also fraternity brothers, and Rick Prideaux, brother of the bride.

The new Mrs. Walker is a senior at University of Washington and a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority.

Bill, a 1967 graduate of Campbell High School, is also a senior at the university and a member of the track team. He is affiliated with Phi Delta Theta.

Californians who journeyed to Seattle for the ceremony besides Mr. and Mrs. Walker, included Mr. and Mrs. Milton Bachman of Livermore, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Sabo of Fremont, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Walker and Mrs. Robert Sutter of San Jose and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hosie of Monrovia.

The bridegroom's grandfather, Julius Bachman of Campbell and the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Ellen Fargher of Cartwright, North Dakota, were honored guests.

Other guests include the Fred Thoets of Long Island, N. Y. and Sgt. David Hosie of Ft. Carson, Colorado.

A reception was held for them following their honeymoon at the senior Walker's Harrison Avenue home.

The couple have returned to Seattle where they will continue their studies.

Children's Fund established to provide for injured girls

A local fund has been established by teachers and parents in the Cambrian-Campbell area to provide financial aid for six local girls who were injured in a traffic accident in October.

Lisa and Trudy Harrington, Kirsten Stewart, Julie Kongshoy, Susan Cashman and Dawn Harland were riding in a camper truck driven by Carl Harrington, who with his wife, Dorothy, was killed in the accident which took place on the Martinez-Benicia Bridge.

All six of the girls were injured. Two of them have since returned to school, but one has lost the sight of an eye and is being tutored at home by a home teacher and three are still hospitalized.

Extensive surgery has been performed on one of the hospitalized girls, age 12, and many more years of corrective plastic surgery are anticipated. Another girl, 10, is still hospitalized with extensive facial burns, a broken leg, and an amputated hand.

According to David Muzzio, president of the Cambrian Faculty Association, the fund started out of a "neighbor helping neighbor project." "Parents and teachers in the district feel a great desire to help these children and their parents through a crisis. Teachers, administrators, parents and citizens have planned together in forming a non-profit corporation."

Called the "Cambrian Children's Fund" donations have already been made at the Cambrian Park branch of the First National Bank.

DeForest Andrews of Houge Jr. High, where five of the girls are seventh graders, says the money will be used to help pay medical bills not covered by insurance. It is also hoped that the tax deductible donations will provide financial help for the Harrington girls, left orphaned by the accident.

Church has vesper services; provides Christmas baskets

First United Methodist Church, 1675 Winchester Blvd., is working with the Salvation Army and are planning to fill between 70 and 80 Christmas baskets beginning next Monday.

Local stores have been cooperating in the program and Rev. William (Ben) Gould says anyone wishing to make donations may contact the local church.

Also in the line with Christmas season the church is planning several special services. Sunday, Dec. 20, a children's Christmas Vesper Service is planned, commencing at 5 p.m. Child care will be provided.

Three special events are planned for Christmas Eve. A family service will be held at 7:30 p.m. with music provided by the Children's Chorus. At 10:30, a contemporary Christmas play will be presented in the Fellowship Hall by high school students Sharon King, John Rhoades and Janine Grodeon, under the direction of Mary Margaret Novak.

At 11:00 the traditional candlelight Christmas Vesper Service will be conducted. The youth and adult choirs will both sing.

Theme is: Christmas-1970.

Church children present program

Children of the Saratoga Avenue Baptist Church Sunday School will present their annual Christmas program on Wednesday, Dec. 23 at 7 p.m.

Mr. Jim TenBrink, superintendent of the Sunday School, who is directing the program, will present treats of candy to the entire congregation at the close of the program. A nursery is provided at all the services.

Saratoga Avenue Baptist Church is located at 1735 Saratoga Ave. near Westgate shopping center, opposite Pay Less Drug Store.

Congregational

Theme of the services at the Congregational Church of Campbell this Sunday will be "The Year They Banned Christmas", according to Rev. Anthony Wayne Myers, minister.

The 10 a.m. service will feature the Crusader Chorus and the adult chorus.

Two Christmas Eve services are planned at the church, 400 West Campbell Ave. Both will be candlelight services, one at 7 p.m. and a second at 11 a.m.

Proud parents brought the pictures into The Campbell Press, expressing the students' desires to share their pride in their hard work.

WE DID 'EM---Second grade students at Blackford Elementary School want everyone to know that they made Christmas decorations and ornaments. The class, pictured with their teacher, Mrs. Anita Posey, worked long and hard on making their tree and it's setting as beautiful as possible. The students will recess Dec. 18, with other Campbell students, for a two week holiday.

Musical programs slated for community

El Solyo Singers will carol again

For the fourteenth consecutive year, the El Solyo Singers will carol the homes of parents and friends in the 1100 block of El Solyo Ave., under the direction of Mrs. Louis Cabral, on Monday, Dec. 21.

Originally under the direction of Mrs. Charles Cole, this tradition began when some of the singers were three and four years old. Now, many of the original group have grown up, several have moved away. Two have married and have children of their own.

Three have gone away to college. Several have distinguished themselves: Michael Hernandez sang in the Del Mar Glee Club. The Schilling family of Martha, Dick, John and Ken have all won honors in competitive swimming.

Stephen Hodos was drum major of the band of Del Mar High School this year, as well as a four year scholar student. His brother, Jeff, is an honor student and member of the Del Mar band.

Sarah Cole is social events chairman and one of the first to form a drill team for Del Mar. She is also an honor student.

Many of those who have moved away, return for this annual caroling. Those singing oe Dec. 21 will be: Jeannie Wanco, Leslie, Dan and Glen Nakamura, Cindy Cabral, Sarah Cole, Elizabeth and Margaret Tripp, Michael, Judy and Gerard Hernandez, Merry and Heidi Weiland, Kenneth Schilling, Helen Campon, Christie Doan, Dawna and Darlene Marshall, Micky and Cindy Farraons, Jeff and Steven Hodos, Michelle, Nessa, Michel and Chollette Kirk, and Elberta Camin Trubshaw.

Guests to the group will be Audrey and Vicky Estergreen from Flagstaff, Arizona, granddaughters of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cole, who are visiting for the holiday season.

Hamilton

Hamilton School hosted a "different" kind of school program last evening when parents and children visited the school and saw slides of Christmas activities in the classrooms and viewed the school chorus on video tape.

Called a Christmas Art Show, the evening's program also featured a bazaar table stocked by the PTA and a visit from Santa Claus.

DARTING AROUND

with Tom Carroll

The first match in the second round of the Fall-Winter schedule of the Northern California Darts Assn. was played last Wednesday. An interesting point is the fact that three of the four matches ended with the same score that was seen in the first round. Banbury Clock II defeated Gaslighter Theater II 7-5 both times.

Banbury Clock I took the first round match against Lancashire Lad I (8-4). The second round was the same score but the other team was the winner.

The same situation occurred between the Scuttlebutt and Lad II. Lad II won the first round match (7-5) and the Scuttlebutt countered to take the second round match.

The Black Knight is the only team to be defeated in both rounds that didn't at least hold its own in the second round. Gaslighter Theater I defeated them 8-4 in the first round and 9-3 in the second.

LEAGUE STANDINGS

The South Bay League standings after last week's play or 96 games has Gaslighter Theater I in first place with 64 games won. Second place is Banbury Clock I with 57 and third is Lancashire Lad I with 55 games. Less than ten games separate the first three teams.

Fourth place is held by the Scuttlebutt with 48 games with Lancashire Lad II in fifth with 45 games. Banbury Clock II moved up to sixth place with 43 wins, and the Black Knight dropped down one to seventh place with 40 wins.

Gaslighter Theater II holds up last place with only 32 wins.

GASLIGHTER I vs KNIGHT

The Black Knight's defeat at the hands of Gaslighter I started with the Gaslighters taking their first three games. Conrad Messmer of the Knight countered to take one for the Knight. Gaslighter team captain John Glaze won the next game with the Knight taking the first team game.

In the second half of the match the Gaslighters took all five singles games with the Knight winning the team game. Final score 9-3, Gaslighter I.

GASLIGHTER II LOSES

In their match with the Banbury Clock II, Gaslighter Theater II started things off with Rich Spelts and Jim "Robb" Robbins winning the first two games. The Clock's Ed Silvera, Phil Kelly and Dick Snyder took the next three singles games. The Clock took the team game which saw the Gaslighter use 42 darts before getting on the board.

George Hoffman of the Gaslighter won the first game in the second half but the same three Clock players that won in the first half, repeated in the second. Then Tom Carroll of the Gaslighters defeated Sunny Barry and the Gaslighters went on to win the team game. Final score 7-5, Clock II.

SCUTTLEBUTT INVADES LOS GATOS

The Lancashire Lad played host to the Scuttlebutt from Mountain View. The Lad's Bob Mayer and Frank Malsbury won the first two with the Scuttlebutt's Jack Mehtala, Bob Allen and John Lillie countering on the next three. The Lad then took the team game with the first half ending in a 3-3 tie.

The second half saw the Scuttlebutt's John Lillie start things off with Frank Malsbury countering for the Lad. Mahtala, Allen and Paul Schultz won the next three with the Lad again winning the team game. Final Score 7-5 Scuttlebutt.

The remaining game in the South Bay League was between Banbury Clock I and Lancashire Lad I. The Clock was sparked with a 102 away by Des Maples and a 104 away by Larry Musial. Dave Ingols of the Lad shot a 121 but the remainder of the Lad team shot consistently good games to emerge the victor by a score of 7-5.

Pines planted at Parkway

Children at Parkway School gave the ecological picture and their school a boost recently when they, their parents and members of the Campbell Union School District participated in a day-long "plant-in" at their school.

Sponsoring the garden activity was the Home and School Club, who accepted 50 Monterey Pines donated by the Santa Clara Parks and Recreation Department and supervised their planting along the playground bordering San Tomas Expressway.

Ed Brajenovich was chairman of the day and principal Kenneth Meinecke reported that the work done was used to support recent classroom discussion on ecology as well as for the practical purpose of a noise and vision screen along the busy expressway.

Parkway is located at 165 Saratoga Ave. and is part of Campbell Union School District.

Campbell track club is formed

The formation of a Campbell area girls and women's track team has been announced by Gerald Harrington, long-time track enthusiast and coach of AAU teams in the area.

Tryouts for the newly formed team will be held Saturday, Dec. 19 at Westmont High School.

Harrington is seeking girls for four age groups: nine and under, 10 and 11, 12 and 13, and 14 and up. During the vacation the girls will have the services of Catherine Smallwood, internationally ranked sprinter who attends Cal State at Pomona and Dolores Lawson, well known javelin thrower and West Valley College student.

Participants will be encouraged to enter running events and high jumping contests, says Harrington, who promises encouragement and training.

The new team, called "Integra" will have extensive practice during the coming months. For information, call Harrington at 378-4105 or Mr. Smallwood at 251-9399.

Christian School honor students

San Jose Christian School, 2350 Leigh Ave., has released the names of their honor roll students in grades seven through 12.

In the seventh grade are Merri Patapoff, Raymond Plopper, Margaret Pryde, David Vander Veen and Tom Van Gorkom. Eighth graders were Naomi Hicks, Victor Marquis and Fred Van Gorkom.

Ninth grade students were Nancy Cristofano, Thomas Duddles, Karen Jamieson, Stephen Tibstra and Judy Williamson.

Deborah Jamieson and Ruth Mintz represented the 11th grade and Esther Mintz and Linda Neff were 12th graders earning a place on the honor roll.

UF checking fund allocations

The priority needs of the more than 30 health, social service, and youth-guidance agencies in the United Fund now directly serving Campbell are presently being evaluated before any funds are distributed for 1971, say UF allocations committee members.

Because of a county-wide squeeze on the economy, UF allocations committees are scrutinizing agency program size, fiscal efficiency, and other factors in an effort to provide the fund's agencies with adequate support for the coming year.

In Campbell, which is part of the fund's Central Area Chapter, some of the agencies now under evaluation are: Eastfield Children's Center, YMCA, Salvation Army, Homemaker Service, Boy Scouts and Camp Fire Girls.

Central Area, the largest of the six local UF chapters, began allocations interviews Dec. 7. The evaluating committee, made up of volunteers from a cross-section of the community, is divided into four panels of seven members each.

Included in the chapter in addition to Campbell are the communities of San Jose, Santa Clara, Milpitas, Cupertino-Monta Vista, Campbell, Cambrian Park, Saratoga-Monte Sereno and Los Gatos.

IMPORTANT WORK---Decorating a tree can be hard work, especially if you're a busy nursery school student. Marcia Biancalana, Karen Bowron and Todd Berry don't seem too unhappy about their results. The children attend Campbell Parent Nursery School at 528 Harrison.

ICE CREAM CONES---Well, that's what the teacher called these trees we're making, but they didn't tell us that there wasn't going to be any ice cream in the cones! Christin Wells, David Emery and Jan Cornelisen of Campbell Parent Nursery put the finishing touches on their trees. David Bennett and Patti Willette are looking on.

Three Campbell High players win places on first all-league teams

Campbell High placed three players on the All-West Valley Athletic League team. Joe Alvarez was named quarterback and Steve Davis, a back, on the offensive team and Jerry Fournier was named as end on the defense aggregation.

Los Gatos, the team that defeated Campbell in the annual Thanksgiving Day battle 27-19, got two spots as did Prospect. Branham picked up three while Leigh, champions of the league, and Saratoga collected seven places each.

Mike Franz, of Leigh, was named back of the year, while Jim Ainlay, of Saratoga, won the lineman of the year award.

Including honorable mention spots, Campbell garnered a total of eight; Prospect, seven; Del Mar, nine; Camden, three and Westmont, one.

Campbell has four players returning next year who received first team through honorable mention honors, including Steve Davis from the first team, Roy Lucas from the second and Kelly Davis and T. Noonkester honorable mention.

Steve Davis, now a junior, repeated in the first team backfield as did Jerry Fournier, tackle-linebacker.

West Valley Sports

By Dick Sparrer

West Valley College's basketball Vikings have their work cut out for them in the next week as they battle two Golden Gate Conference powers and one Coast Conference representative in non-league action.

The Vikings, now 5-2 on the season, play host to a strong Chabot quintet Thursday and have to return to the courts Saturday to challenge the CC's Menlo. Both games are at Campbell High School and game time is 8 p.m. San Mateo entertains Valley Tuesday at 8 p.m.

While their next two scheduled foes were winning their Saturday contests, West Valley fell 77-67 to a tough American River squad. The loss was only the Vikes second but snapped a four game win streak for the Campbell cagers. Doug Oliver took high point honors for Valley with 18, his top mark of the year.

A night earlier, as the Vikings took their weekend Sacramento trip, things were much different as Valley came from behind to down the Sacramento State junior varsity 71-62. Butch Romano and Joe Gallagher netted 19 points each to lead all game scorers, while Oliver bagged 13, Mike Berch, eight, and Dan Dolen seven.

The Vikings and Seahawks saw their score bounce from one side to the other before the orange and blue clad dribblers took control with a little more than aminute left to take a 61-54 victory.

Gallagher tipped in a missed lay-up by Oliver to provide the winning bucket with only 1:14 left to play to secure to win.

Gallagher had his best night of the year with a 25 point performance while Berch and Jim Smrekar supported with eight each and Oliver and Dolen added six each.

THANKS FOR TURNING OUT TO VOTE !

We, as members of the Campbell City Council appreciate the many voters who gave us their direction in the special election on December 8. Naturally, we are happy that the majority supported our position. And now that the people have spoken, may we lay this long standing squabble to rest, bury the hard feelings it may have caused and get on with more constructive objectives in our city.

We again thank all of those who assisted us in presenting the facts of the issue, on both sides, to the electorate during the campaign.

Letters to the Editor

WHY DEMOTED?

Letter:

Dear George:

The following letter was sent to the board of trustees of the Campbell Union School District. Although it was not read in the open meeting, I have no objections in making the contents known. I would like to have you publish it in your letters-to-the-editor column, if you care to.

Thank you,
Gordon Abbott.

Dr. Richard Mac Quiddy,
President and Members of the Board of Trustees
Campbell Union School Dist.
155 N. Third Street
Campbell, California 95008

Subject: Written Communications 12/10/70 Board Meeting

Dear Dr. Mac Quiddy & Members of the Board of Trustees:

On the evening of Oct. 8, 1970, by a 3-2 vote of the Board, Neal Royer, Superintendent of the district was demoted. The reason and/or reasons for your action still are unknown. Why?? Eight weeks have elapsed. I believe that you have the responsibility to inform the Citizens of the district the reasons for your actions. As it now stands the good people of this district are left to the mercy of vindictive and vendetta filled rumors and statements which do nothing to serve a cause of justice and fair play.

Mr. Royer asked and received on Dec. 1, 1970 a meeting in Executive Session with you. Reports are that you failed to present Mr. Royer with any written reasons for his demotion. Is this true?? If it is true, I presume that there are no charges sufficient to justify your acts and actions. Perhaps you acted in advance of anticipated events that have not materialized hoping that they would support your action.

Trustee Ralph Steinberg has been quoted to the effect that the reasons for the demotion have not been made public because County Counsel had advised the board not to do so. He has reaffirmed, "We are not in any phony, superficial sense trying to cover up anything."

County Counsel, via Deputy County Counsel, Robert T. Owens, informed the Board on Nov. 4, 1970, "This office has not instructed the board of trustees or any member thereof that Mr. Royer should not be advised of the reasons for the board's action in reassigning him. In the event Mr. Royer requests this information it should be provided him. These reasons should not be made public by the district unless Mr. Royer requests them and consents to their being made public."

It is clear that the board is responsible for presenting Mr. Royer with clear and unobstructed charges in writing. This board has apparently failed to do this even after Mr. Royer requested you to do so. It is obvious that he can't make the decision as to whether or not to release the charges publicly in advance of receiving them.

Eight weeks is sufficient time for you to justify your position. Eight weeks is sufficient time with the administrative and legal aids at your disposal to prepare and present to Mr. Royer the charges to substantiate your acts and actions.

If your charges are factual with substance you can count on my support of your acts and actions. If on the other hand they are phony or in a superficial sense, to cover up anything consider this as a letter requesting the three members who voted for Mr. Royer's demotion resign.

Sincerely,
Gordon G. Abbott

PAYING UP---On the day the official contract was signed for The Good Samaritan Hospital to provide acreage on which Union Little League can construct baseball diamonds, three players showed up with three crisp $1 bills—representing full payment of the three-year "one-dollar-a year" contract. Here, Floyd A. Sorensen, hospital president, takes the bills from (left to right) Chuck Abbott, Bob Singer, and Jeff Chalmers.

Hospital "rents" property to Little League

Union Little League, whose teams have been practicing and playing their games on Union School baseball diamonds, will have three diamonds of its own this spring—thanks to The Good Samaritan Hospital of Santa Clara Valley.

A three-year, "dollar-a-year" contract has been signed which will permit the Union Little League to construct a clubhouse and three diamonds on approximately three acres of surplus hospital property. Farm, minor and major teams will play there, with seniors continuing to use Union School facilities.

Between 400 and 500 boys between 8 and 15 years old annually play with Union Little League, according to Gail Abbott, president.

The acreage is being held for the long-range development program of the non-profit hospital. It will not be needed for Phase II expansion, which is now in final planning stages, according to Floyd A. Sorensen, president. However, should the hospital find need for the property assigned to Little League, the contract may be terminated with the hospital repaying the group for improvements.

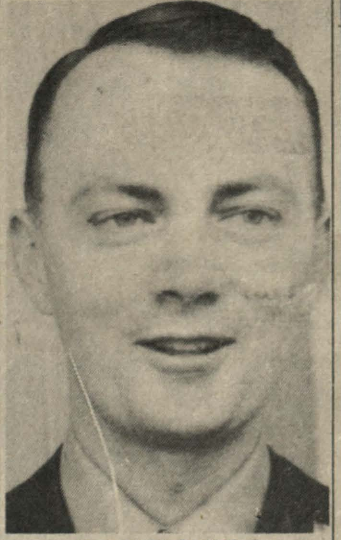
Police officer wins promotion

Chief John Morgan of the Campbell Police Department has announced the promotion of Agent Don Dore' to the rank of Sergeant in the department.

Dore', a member of the department since 1964, will replace Sgt. Frank Furtaw, who will become juvenile officer. The position of juvenile officer was formerly held by Sgt. John Butler. Butler will move up to a new position in the department, as a crime and delinquency prevention officer.



DON DORE'

Formerly a member of the San Bruno Police Department, Dore' lives in Campbell, with his wife Suzanne and two children. He also is a teacher in the driver improvement program sponsored by the adult education department.

He also holds a State of California teaching credential in police science and an Intermediate Peace Officer Standard and Training Certificate.

CHRISTMAS AT THE PRUNEYARD

Most large shopping centers are decorated for Christmas with lights or trees or maybe both. Most have a Santa Claus. Few have atmosphere. The PruneYard is a striking reflection of Old World beauty set in the middle of a bustling, modern city. Lights and trees and Santa Claus are there.

But Christmas comes to the PruneYard the way Christmas comes in Mexico...festive, bright with color and light, and fun!

In order to celebrate the first Christmas as an office and specialty shopping complex, The PruneYard is adorned with authentic Mexican decorations, twinkling lights and beautiful hanging pinatas.

Every Saturday a quaint wagon pulled by two shaggy white ponies gives children free rides around the center. Local art groups display their original paintings and sculpture every weekend. Santa Claus, of course, is on hand to charm the little ones.

And from Dec. 16 to Dec. 24, which is the "Posada" festival period in Mexico, The PruneYard Merchants will be distributing a beautiful and memorable gift to all shoppers who visit their stores.

It is an authentic, original game, similar to Monopoly and to Aggravation, entitled The PruneYard Posada Game.

Designed like The PruneYard in form, this game can be played by up to four people, at home, and requires nothing more than dice to play. It is a simple and unique gift, forming part of a simple yet unique promotion.

In keeping with both the architecture of the center and the joyous style of Mexican festivity, The PruneYard Christmas promotion is setting a precedent in character and style not only for future PruneYard Christmas festivities but for all large shopping centers.
